Below are the GLENCARRON AND GLENUAIG ESTATE RULES AND IMPORTANT WARNINGS regarding the land and properties on the Estate:

No shooting, fishing or other hunting or trapping of any kind is permitted on the Glencarron and Glenuaig Estate without the express written permission of the owners.

You may not bring firearms or other weapons onto the estate without the express written permission of the owner and you will be required to ask the Estate Ghillie to put firearms in a gun cabinet in his cottage on arrival and when not in use. Use of your own firearms will be at the discretion of the Estate Ghillie.

All shooting activities are on condition that you wear ear protectors – please ask the ghillie for these if you do not have any – and observe gun safety.

No off road driving is permitted on the Estate. Driving on the estate track roads must be with owner's permission, within the speed limit of 10 miles per hour and within the tracks.

All fishing is strictly by fly and all salmon and sea trout are strictly on a catch and release basis. All catches must be faithfully reported to the estate ghillie at his Cottage. We reserve the right to require you not to fish further on the estate waters if we consider that you are abusing the facilities or not giving due consideration to others legitimately fishing on the estate. For those hiring a property on the estate there is no further charge for fishing providing that you abide by these Estate Rules and inform us in writing that you are bringing a rod.

Use of the row boat must be by prior arrangement and is entirely at your own risk and on condition that you act responsibly, conduct your own risk assessment before you begin, supervise all children and you all wear appropriate buoyancy aids (there are some hanging in Glencarron Lodge gun room but the owner cannot guarantee the numbers and sizes of them so you should bring your own if you have them and want to be sure to have the appropriate sizes). The Loch can have strong currents so that a grown man may not be able to row across it and it is very deep in places.

It is a condition of your hiring of property on the estate and of permission for any activity whatsoever that you do on the estate, that you obtain the owner's written permission for the activity, you undertake a full risk assessment of doing any activity and take all reasonable precautions to remove all possible risks to yourselves, other people, livestock, the land and all flora and fauna associated with it and the property and any other risk whatsoever. You do such activities entirely at your own risk.

For all activities, children under sixteen must be accompanied by sufficient adult parents or carers (over 21) to look after them and take responsibility for them. It is at the ghillies's discretion to refuse to take groups out whose composition he considers poses an unacceptable risk.
